Our were matched against 7,990; and surrible slaughter among the enemy, a terrible slaughter of themselves, when the North real the communication of themselves, of the season, from the covent capture of the place. It might have been done at any time, and without less of His, and we should have been just so much further along on the road down the river. But the thing was not done, and Columbus continued to hold out the taunt of battle to our boys at Cairo until Gm. led. Col. Dougherty is a resident taunt of battle to our boys at Cairo until Gan. Polk made sure of it in the name of the Confederate States. This was two mouths ago; and save that the Federal troops have taken Paducab, and have fortified themselves at Fort Holt, opposite Cairo, the relative position of things has been unchanged. We have some 35,000 troops at Cairo, Bird's Fosts, Fort Holt and Paducah, the whole commanded by Gon. U. S. Grant; while Gen. McClernand courmande at Cairo, Gen. Smith at Paducah, Col. Oglesby at Bird's Point, and Col. Cook at Fort Holt. The troops are all well equipped, and are the veterans of the Western service. They have long been in need of something to call them out.

risouri at all. Scouts have returned thirty to forty miles distant from occid and they report no enemy of course he makes his bulletins he army to suit the commanding i. It was he who put forth the cab, moved overland towards Columbus, on Wednesday, with 5,000 men, leaving Padusah at 11 a m. The distance is some 35 miles, and the road is good, aithough several bridges have bren burned along the way. At 5 o'clock the same (Wednesday) evening, Gen. McCleruand started from Cairo also with five thousand men, on four transport steamers, the gunbosts Tyler and Conestogs leading the way. The transport steamers were the Chasaberiale, chancelior, Kay Stoma, and Alex. Scott. The Key Stone carried 1,800 mm on her three decks; while the others, of less capacity, literally swarmed with men. There were at tillery and cavalry in each division, and it is probable that both companies of the Chicago Artillery, A mid B, are along. Company A, Capt. Williard, was at Bird's Point, at last accounts, and would likely go with McClernand; while Company B was at Paducah, and would go with Gen. Paine.

It was expected that both divisions would be ready to or operate in an attack on Thursmay that there was talk, among the ten at Springfield, of "creating Freprobably 25,000. Our gun-bosts had found that they could take position under shelter of a bend in the river, out of the range of the rabel cannon, and shell the town until it should be untenable. This they would probable by do, while the troops were lar

The Cheinnati Commercial has the following important item in its Indianapolis disputch, Thursday merning:

Wisconsis Election.

The vote for Louis P. Harvey, for Governor, empares isvorshly, thus far, with the vote for Governor Eandail, two years ago, and there seems to be no coubt of his election. Mr. Ferguson, the Democratic caudidate, has made a strong canvies, and has had the "farm mortures" in some localities, thereby oband three out of the four Representatives to that party. Dodge sounty runs up to 1,000. Democratic mejority, a galu of 800. Kenesha county gives Harvey 604, and Racine 1,000, a Fandsome gain in each listance. The city of Madison gives Harvey 65 major-ity, and Salomon, for Lieutenant Governor, 262 majority; and the county (Dane) elects two Republican Senstors and four Represent-

Representative.

The Seaste, one-half of which house over, are as Republican without Acubt, but the fouse is quite likely to be Democratic. It is impossible, as yet, however, to tell with any criainty, who will have the Legislaura.

APTRINGON DISPATCH.

CAIDO, NOV. 7.—The expedition which left here last evening (destination Columbus) are having a warm time of it. Heavy camonading has been heard, here for the last few heurs. We are expecting momentarily to hear of the capture of Columbus.

MIDSIGHT DISPATCH.

CAIDO, NOV. 7.—A great bat'lle was fought to-day at Belmout, three miles above Columbus. Generals Grant and McClernand commanded. Our troops landed at 8 o'clock A. M. The batile commanded at cleves, and continued until sundown. Our boys drove she enemy from their mitrenchments with great loss, burned their cump and stores, with all their baggies, took all their camon, brought home their horses and mules, two field pieces and near 100 prisoners; but were finally forced to retire to our boats, the rebells having received a reinforcement from Columbus continued to retire to our boats, the rebells having received a reinforcement from Columbus. New York, Nor, 7.—The Heroid says:
"The report of Capt Hunter, of the rebel teamer Curlew, of the sugarement between himsel; and the Federal batteries at Historas, reminds us of the report of Capt Hollins, and is equally true. He stated he sighted his rifled gun at the Harrist Lane. The Harrist Lane is not any where near Hatteras, being now the flag ship of the Potomes flottlis. Again, he says he came within easy range. A purcou, who was present at the time tailorins in the Curlew did not venture within four miles of the 'atteries, said that her shot fail though about a mile and a half.

Farinworth, Detroit; Capt. Berkley, Capt. Parker, Capt. G. T. Wood, 17th Regiment British Army, Quebec; Col. Tarner, Col. Wn. Irwin, Capt. Bhanley, Lieut. H. C. Bull, W. S. Arney, Dr. G. Aigner, E. Anthony, J. E. Mallory and lady, New York; S. Stien, Wm. Turker, Baltimore; L. Brahvard, Hartford, Ct.; Julius Movins, and L. Wilhelm, Bulfalo.

CECH. DREMER.—Welsh, corner of Madeson street and Custom House Place has received "Cecil Dreeme," published by Ticknor & Fields, Bostes, Mass. "Cecil Dreeme," as every one knows, is from the pen of the bravest of the braves, who fell on the disastrous day of Big Bethel. His sad fate lends fresh interest to a production already charming to the reading public from its crisp, fresh style, ingenicus narrative, and eloquest thought. It will be widely purchased and preserved, both as a remarkable Hierary production and a souvenir of the gallant and Ill fated Winthrop.

Venir or the gallant and Ill-fated Winthrop.

The meeting was called to order by Philip Conley, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and the minutes of the last meeting havhig been read, Ald. Princiville, of the Committee from the Common Council, eadd they were there prepared to co operate with any action that might be taken by the meeting.
Supt. Bradley, from the Committee on furnishing guns for a salute, stated that there was but one gun in the city, and Colonel Tucker had that at Camp Douglas. He had not been able to perfect arrangements yet, but he would answer for it that guns should be had and a proper salute fired.

The Committee on Military reported that they had called on Col. Tacker, who would furnish an escort of cavalry, and as from want of arms and equipments the infastry could not make a good display; he thought the de-
